Re: United States v. Brian Kolfage, et al., 20 Cr. 412 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

Defendant Brian Kolfage has moved to adjourn the sentencing in this case, currently scheduled on March 1, 2023, for approximately eight weeks. (Dkt. 359). Counsel for defendant Timothy Shea has indicated that he is unavailable on Kolfage's proposed dates, and has proposed alternative dates. (Dkt. 360). The Government respectfully submits this letter per the Court's order to respond to these requests. (Dkt. 361).

The Government believes that the requested adjournment is longer than necessary, and, having conferred with counsel for all three defendants, has not been able to identify a date that works for all parties. As a result, the Government respectfully requests that the Court keep the March 1, 2023 sentencing date for Shea and Badolato, and adjourn Kolfage's sentencing until April 7, 2023, a date on which Kolfage's counsel has told us he is available.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS United States Attorney
